C31's mission is to promote and assist community groups and individuals in creating television programs. We also encourage individuals to participate in production, organisation, management and broadcast of C31 Adelaide and we support all forms of education and learning.

Would you like to make your own television program? Are you involved in a group that would benefit from creating and producing your own program?

Would you be interested in volunteering your time to be trained in operating a television station?

Membership of C31 is open to any individual, community organisation or body corporate supporting the ideals of community television. C31 Adelaide embraces and promotes the Australian Broadcasting Authority's Access Statement. In addition C31 Adelaide supports volunteers being directly involved in management of the channel, assisting community groups in producing programs and the principal of equity of access to airtime for all members.

C31 Adelaide Limited is a member of the Community Broadcasting Association of Australia (CBAA) and is recognised by the Australian Broadcasting Authority as the Community Television (CTV) licence holder for Adelaide.
